SECURITY COUNCIL

What is the Security Council?

The Security Council (SC) is one of the advanced committees of the Model United Nations. The SC follows the Ad-Hoc debate system, which goes clause-by-clause to create a joint resolution in the end. The delegates are required to be well informed on the question and use that information during the debate.

Security Council in TIMUN' 25

This year's Security Council will be gathering for the disputes within the focus region of Africa. The delegates will be debating the conflicts in the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Mali, and Yemen.

HISTORICAL SECURITY COUNCIL

What is the Historical Security Council?

The Historical Security Council (HSC) is one of the most advanced committees of the Model United Nations. The HSC follows the Ad-Hoc debate system, which goes clause-by-clause to create a joint resolution in the end. The executive committee and chairboard will define a date for the committee, and delegates are required to debate the issue as if the committee has commenced on that day. Hence, solutions implemented after that date are considered invalid. The delegates are required to be well informed on the question and use that information during the debate.

Historical Security Council in TIMUN' 25

This year's Historical Security Council will be gathering for the disputes within the focus region of Africa. The delegates will be debating the Badme War, the Second Congo War, and the Angolan Civil War, all prominent disputes occurring between 1975-2003.

Security Council Rules of Procedure

a. Procedures for Debate

- The debate is conducted in clause-by-clause format and in a closed debate format.
- After taking the floor, a speaker must choose among:
 - Yielding the floor to the chair,
 - Yielding the floor to another panelist,
 - Answering points of information from the House.

NOTE: Delegates are allowed to yield the floor to another delegate after having answered points of information from the House. This can only happen once consecutively.

- Follow-ups are not allowed.

- Historical Security Council Specific Rules:

- As noted above, the debate of the agenda item will be held on a specific day and time, as defined by the chairboard.
- Solutions, resolutions, treaties, etc. accepted after the date identified for the committee can not be mentioned in clauses.
- UN sub-committees that were not formed at the date of the committee cannot be mentioned in clauses.
- It is upon the chair's discretion to amend or completely remove clauses that do not comply with the timing of the committee.
- The date of the committee may change for each agenda item, upon the discretion of the chairboard.

b. Procedures for Amendments:

- Amendments are conducted in a closed debate format.
- Delegates cannot submit full clauses as amendments.
- The voting procedure for amendments is different than that of clauses: In favor, against, and abstention votes will be taken. If there is a majority of in favor votes, the amendment passes. In all other cases, the amendment fails.

c. Procedures for Voting on Clauses:

- When voting on clauses, delegates can vote in favor, against, or abstain.
- The Permanent Five countries, US, UK, Russia, France, and China hold veto power. Against votes are counted to be vetoes on the clause.
- P5 countries wishing to veto are required to inform the chairboard before the voting procedure, and then vote against the clause.

- The chairboard will hold a P5 caucus with P5 countries and the expert chair on the agenda item. As a result of the P5 caucus, the clause can be vetoed, or a change to the clause might be requested, backed by a veto threat.
- If a P5 does not wish to veto nor vote in favor, they must abstain.
- The Student Officers have the discretion to decide whether or not a veto threat is valid. They hold the discretion whether there will be a P5 caucus held or not.
